Online Pay-Per-View Ordering and Account User Help

This section of the site contains information about online pay-per-view browsing, ordering and changing your user account profile.

Maintain Digital Box Nickname

Immediately following the successful registration process, the Maintain Digital Box Nickname page appears. It can also be displayed by clicking the "Maintain Digital Box Nickname" link from the Pay-Per-View Schedule page.

Nicknames are a convenient way to remember the digital box as opposed to remembering the 16-digit Unit Address during the ordering and canceling processes.

Please use this feature to assign nicknames to the active digital boxes in your account.

Simply type in a nickname of your choice for your digital box(es) displayed on the page.

Another convenient feature available to you is to assign the default setting to the digital box that you will primarily use for your Pay-Per-View movie or event enjoyment.

Simply click the check box beside the digital box you want to set as the default digital box for your Pay-Per-View orders.

Click the 'Submit' button to process this request. The "Update was successful" message appears. Click the "Click here to continue" link to proceed to the Pay-Per-View Schedule page.

If you do not wish to assign nicknames to your digital box(es), simply click the 'Skip' button to proceed to the Pay-Per-View Schedule page.

Online Pay-Per-View Browsing and Ordering

A successful login will bring you to the Pay-Per-View Schedule page. This page is separated into two panes. The top pane displays your current Open Orders that are ready to take place. If you have not placed any orders or the time has passed for a recent order, then there will not be any orders present in this pane.

The bottom pane displays the current Pay-Per-View Schedule, which lists the first group of 20 titles, sorted by the most recent date/time to occur, then by Event Title in alphabetical order for that given time period. You will notice the online schedule will coincide with the on screen guide of your digital box.

Important Notes about Browsing and Ordering

Browsing

The default schedule will display movies and events available for the next seven (7) day period. Click the 'Next' or 'Previous' links at the bottom of the schedule table to browse the remaining pages of the schedule for the movies or events you wish order.

Searching

Search by Title: Simply click the “Event Title” link and the schedule will sort the event titles alphabetically.

Search by Start Date/Time: Simply click the “Start Date/Time” link and the schedule will sort in chronological order with the most recent start date/time first.

Search by Channel Name: Simply click the “Channel Name” link and the schedule will sort by channel number in alpha-numeric order.
